Policy

Your Privacy is Important to Us

The Salvation Army is committed to upholding the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988. We recognise the importance of privacy and community awareness regarding the collection, use, disclosure and security of personal and sensitive information which we may collect during the course of our many functions. This Privacy Policy sets out how we manage your personal and sensitive information and protect your privacy

The Information We Collect and Hold

The Salvation Army performs many functions and provides a wide range of services and programs across Australia. We will only collect personal and sensitive information that is necessary for us to carry out these functions and provide these services and programs. The type of information we may collect, hold and use, varies depending on the purpose for which it is collected but may include the following (amongst others):

Supporters: as a supporter of The Salvation Army's mission and activities, we may need to collect your name and contact details. As a valued financial supporter of our fundraising activities, we may also need to collect your bank account or credit card details

Service recipients: program participants or clients of our other services - as a recipient of, or participant in, one of our many services and programs (such as aged care, recovery, welfare, employment assistance, social or other services and programs), we may need to collect your name and contact details, information regarding your health, income status, religious beliefs, ethnicity and emergency contact details

Customers: as a customer at one of our many stores, we may need to collect your name and contact details at the time of purchase or in connection with your donation of goods

Personnel: as an officer, employee, volunteer or member of The Salvation Army, we may need to collect information about your name and contact details, bank account and taxation details, qualifications, previous experience and emergency contact details

How we collect and keep safe your personal and sensitive information

How we collect and store personal and sensitive information varies depending on the purpose for which it is collected. We may collect your personal information:

- directly from you, either in person, over the phone or by email
- from third parties where you have specifically authorised us to do so
- through our website including through forms on our website.

We will always collect your personal information directly from you unless it is impracticable to do so. This would usually be done in person, over the telephone or by email.

Examples may include:

- copies of your written correspondence with us
- copies of receipts and/or transaction records in relation to your financial support of our fundraising activities
- copies of your application form, request for assistance and/or other associated documents (including documents generated during your participation in a program with, or otherwise during your interactions with us) and information that you may provide to us in relation to one of the many services and programs we offer
- copies of your volunteer agreement or employment agreement and any associated documents and information you provide to us in connection with your volunteering for or employment with The Salvation Army

We may keep copies of the above documents (in physical and/or electronic form, at our election) as is necessary to carry out our functions and provide our services and programs. All personal and sensitive information is securely stored at all times by us or an authorised external service provider and only authorised people will have access to the above documents and information.

Why we collect, hold and use personal and sensitive information

We may collect, hold, use and disclose personal and sensitive information for purposes necessary to carry out our functions and provide our services and programs. Generally, these purposes include:

- to keep in contact with you as a supporter of The Salvation Army and to inform you about the role and extent of our work and mission
- to manage our fundraising activities and for taxation record-keeping purposes associated with your donation to The Salvation Army
- to assess your welfare needs and to provide you with the welfare and community services and assistance we offer
- to provide you with the necessary care and assistance during your time as a resident of, or recipient of services from, one of our services, centres or facilities (such as aged care centres, recovery services, crisis accommodation services, etc.)
- to provide you with the services requested by you from us
- to facilitate and manage your purchase from, or donation of goods to, one of our stores
- to comply with necessary business and accounting standards
- to comply with our reporting obligations to the Australian Taxation Office and other government agencies and public sector bodies
- to facilitate and manage your employment relationship or volunteer arrangement with The Salvation Army

We are committed to maintaining your privacy and we will only use your personal and sensitive information for a permitted purpose for which we have collected the information. There is no obligation for you to provide us with any of your personal information however if you choose not to provide us with your personal information, we may not be able to provide you with the services that you require. You have the option of not identifying yourself or using a pseudonym when dealing with us in relation to a particular matter, unless we believe it is impracticable to do so in the circumstances. If you wish to deal with us in this manner, you must tell us in writing so that we can consider if your request is practicable.

How we may share your information

If necessary, to carry out our functions and provide our services and programs, we may need to disclose your personal and sensitive information to external service providers (such as information technology service providers, legal service providers, mailing houses, call centres, other community service providers, etc.) and other organisations.

We will only share your personal and sensitive information in accordance with your express consent and instructions, subject to the exclusions set out in the Australian Privacy Principles, or in accordance with the specific Privacy Notice provided to you by us at or near the time of collection of your personal and sensitive information.

We do not supply our database information to other marketing organisations not acting on our behalf.

How we use Google Remarketing

We do not collect any individual personal information on visitors to our website without your knowledge. We do collect non-personal information that allows us to log information about visitors to our website for statistical purposes, such as:

- the number of unique sessions as identified by server address and top-level domain name (e.g. .com, .gov, .org, etc.)
- the number of page hits

- the pages accessed or downloaded by session
- the type of browser being used
- the length of time spent on the site and on particular pages
- the device being used (e.g. desktop or mobile)
- the type of mobile device being used (e.g. iPhone 6).

In addition:

- we have implemented and use Display Advertising
- we use Remarketing with Google to advertise online
- third-party vendors, including Google, show our ads on sites across the Internet
- we and third-party vendors, including Google, use first-party cookies (such as the Google Analytics cookie) and third-party cookies (such as the DoubleClick cookie) together to inform, optimise, and serve ads based on someone's past behaviour to our website
- users can opt out by utilising Google's Opt-out Browser Add-on (<https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout/>) and/or Ads Preferences Manager (<https://www.google.com/settings/ads/>)

What international disclosure do we make?

The Salvation Army is an international movement with a presence in over 120 countries. While every effort is made to keep personal and sensitive information we hold in Australia only, in order to carry out our functions and provide our programs and services we may need to disclose personal and sensitive information to overseas recipients, unless expressly prohibited by law. In the unlikely event such disclosure is required, it will generally involve disclosure to international territories of The Salvation Army and only to the extent necessary to carry out our functions and provide our programs and services.

How you can access and seek correction of your personal and sensitive information

You have the right to access your personal and sensitive information, subject to some exceptions allowed by law. If you would like to access or seek correction of your personal and sensitive information, please contact our Privacy Office at the contact details below. For security reasons you will be asked to put your request in writing.

To enable us to verify your request we require you to advise the following:

- Your full name
- Address
- Contact phone number
- The relevant department or service (if known) that your request relates to

There is no application fee for making a request to access your personal and sensitive information. While we do not normally charge for providing individuals with access to their personal and sensitive information, we reserve the right to charge you for our reasonable costs in complying with a request for access. These costs will not be excessive.

How you can complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles?

We are committed to protecting your privacy and upholding the Australian Privacy Principles. If you believe we have breached the Australian Privacy Principles, please contact our Privacy Office with your concerns at the contact details below. We take all complaints very seriously and we will endeavour to respond to your complaint and address your concerns as soon as reasonably practicable.

How we comply with the Notifiable Data Breaches Scheme

We will notify you in the event your personal information is involved in a data breach that is likely to result in serious harm. This notification will include recommendations about the steps you should take in response to the breach. We will also notify The Australian Information Commissioner of eligible data breaches. Each suspected data breach reported to us will be assessed to determine whether it is likely to result in serious harm, and as a result require notification.

How you can contact our Privacy Office

We welcome and appreciate your feedback or comments in relation to our Privacy Policy and the collection of personal and sensitive information. If you have any questions in relation to privacy please contact our Privacy Office for your state or territory at the contact details below:

School Specific Privacy Policy

This School Specific Privacy Policy sets out how TSA Independent Schools manages personal information provided to or collected by it. TSA Independent Schools is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Act. TSA Independent Schools may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changed to TSA Independent Schools operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing school environment.

What kinds of personal information does TSA Independent Schools collect and how does the school collect it?

The type of information TSA Independent Schools collects and holds includes (but is not limited to) personal information, including health and other sensitive information about:

- Students and parents and/or carers before, during and after the course of a student's enrolment at the school:
  - Name, contact details (including next of kin), date of birth, gender, language background, previous school and religion
  - Parents education and occupation
  - Medical information (eg details of disability, allergies, asthma, diabetes, epilepsy, medical reports)
  - School reports, conduct records, behaviour reports, information about referrals to government welfare agencies
  - Counselling reports
  - Health fund details and Medicare number
  - Any court orders or legal issues
  - Volunteering and/or work information
  - Photos and videos at school events
- Job applicants, staff members, volunteers and contractors:
  - Name, contact details (including next of kin), date of birth and religion
  - Information on job application
  - Professional development history
  - Salary and payment information, including superannuation details
  - Medical information (eg details of disability, allergies, medical certificates)
  - Complaint records and investigation reports
  - Leave details
  - Photos and videos at school events
  - Workplace surveillance information
  - Work emails and private emails (when using work email address) and internet browsing history
- Other people who come into contact with the School including name and contact details and any other information necessary for the particular contact with the school

Personal Information you provide:

TSA Independent Schools will generally collect personal information held about an individual by way of forms filled out by parents or students, face-to-face meetings and interviews, emails and telephone calls. On occasions people other than parents and students provide personal information.

Personal Information provided by other people:

In some circumstances TSA Independent Schools may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, for example, a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school.

How will the school use the personal information you provide?

TSA Independent Schools will use personal information it collects from you for the primary purpose of collection, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and reasonably expected by you, or to which you have consented.

Students and Parents

In relation to personal information of students and parents, TSA Independent Schools primary purpose of collection is to enable TSA Independent Schools to provide schooling to students enrolled at the school, exercise its duty of care, and perform necessary associated administrative activities, which will enable students to take part in all the activities of the school. This includes satisfying the needs of parents/carers, the needs of the student and the needs of TSA Independent Schools throughout the whole period the student is enrolled at the school.

The purpose for which TSA Independent Schools uses personal information of students and parents/carers include:

- To keep parents/carers informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence and newsletters
- Day-to-day administration of TSA Independent Schools
- Looking after student's educational, social and emotional and medical well-being
- To satisfy TSA Independent Schools legal obligations and allow the school to discharge its duty of care

In some cases, where TSA Independent Schools requests personal information about a student or parent, if the information requested is not provided, TSA Independent Schools may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the student or permit the student to take part in a particular activity.

On occasions, information such as academic, sporting, improvement achievements, student activities and similar news is published in our school newsletter and on our website. This may include photographs and videos of student activities such as school camps and excursions. The school will obtain permission [annually] from the student's parent/guardian (and from the student if appropriate) if we would like to include such photographs or videos (or other identifying material) in our promotional material or otherwise make this material available to the public such as on the internet.

Job applicants, Staff Members and Contractors

In relation to personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors, TSA Independent Schools primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant, staff member or contractor, as the case may be.

The purposes for which TSA Independent Schools uses personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors include:

- in administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be
- for insurance purposes
- seeking donations and marketing for the school
- to satisfy the school's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Volunteers

The school also obtains personal information about volunteers who assist TSA Independent Schools in its functions or conduct associated activities, such as graduation preparation or general reception duties, to enable TSA Independent Schools and the volunteers to work together.

Who might the school disclose Personal Information to and store your information with?

TSA Independent Schools may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, held about an individual for educational, legal, administrative, marketing and support purposes. This may include to:

- Another school or staff at another school
- Government departments (including for policy and funding purposes)
- Medical practitioners
- People providing educational, support and health services to the school, including specialist visiting teachers, coaches, counsellors, other youth workers and providers of learning and assessment tools
- Assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and reporting Authority (ACARA), Independent Schools Queensland (ISQ), Non-State Schools Accreditation Board (NSSAB), Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority (QCAA), Queensland Department of Employment, Small Business and Training (DESBT) and National Centre for Vocational Educational Research (NCVER)
- People providing administrative and financial services to TSA Independent Schools
- Recipients of School publications such as our newsletter
- Students' parents/carers
- Anyone you authorise TSA Independent Schools to disclose information to
- Anyone to whom we are required or authorised to disclose the information by law, including child protection laws

Sensitive Information

In referring to 'sensitive information', TSA Independent Schools means: information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices or criminal record, that is also personal information; health information and biometric information about an individual.

Sensitive information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the sensitive information is required by law.

Management and Security of Personal Information

TSA Independent Schools's staff are required to respect the confidentiality of students' and parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals. TSA Independent Schools has in place steps to protect the personal information TSA Independent Schools holds from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records.

Data Breaches

It will be deemed that an 'eligible data breach' has occurred if:

- there has been unauthorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, personal information about one or more individuals (the affected individuals)
- a reasonable person would conclude there is a likelihood of serious harm to any affected individuals as a result
- the information is lost in circumstances where:
  - unauthorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, the information is likely to occur
  - assuming unauthorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, the information was to occur, a reasonable person would conclude that it would be likely to result in serious harm to the affected individuals.

Serious harm may include serious physical, psychological, emotional, economic and financial harm, as well as serious harm to reputation.

What must the school do in the event of an 'eligible data breach'?

If TSA Independent Schools suspects that an eligible data breach has occurred, it will carry out a reasonable and expedient assessment/investigation within 30 days.

If such an assessment/investigation indicates there are reasonable grounds to believe an eligible data breach has occurred, then TSA Independent Schools will be required to lodge a statement to the Privacy Commissioner (Commissioner). Where practical to do so, the school entity will also notify the affected individuals. If it is not practicable to notify the affected individuals, TSA Independent Schools will publish a copy of the statement on its website, or publicise it in another manner.

Exception to notification obligation

An exception to the requirement to notify will exist if there is a data breach and immediate remedial action is taken, and as a result of that action:

- there is no unauthorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, the information
- there is no serious harm to affected individuals, and as a result of the remedial action, a reasonable person would conclude the breach is not likely to result in serious harm.

Access and Correction of Personal Information

Under the Privacy Act, an individual has the right to seek and obtain access to any personal information which TSA Independent Schools holds about them and to advise TSA Independent Schools of any perceived inaccuracy. There are some exceptions to this right set out in the Act. Students will generally be able to access and update their personal information through their parents, but older students may seek access and correction themselves.

To make a request to access or to update any personal information TSA Independent Schools holds about you or your child, please contact the School Principal or Lead Teacher in writing. TSA Independent Schools may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. TSA Independent Schools may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, TSA Independent Schools will advise the likely cost in advance. If we cannot provide you with access to that information, we will provide you with written notice explaining the reasons for refusal.

The school will take reasonable steps to ensure that any personal information is accurate, up to date, complete, relevant and not misleading.

Consent and Rights of Access to Personal Information of Students

TSA Independent Schools respects every parent's right to make decisions concerning their child's education. Generally, TSA Independent Schools will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a student to the students' parents. TSA Independent Schools will treat consent given by parents as consent given on behalf of the student, and, notice to parents will act as notice given to the student.

As mentioned above, parents may seek access to personal information held by TSA Independent Schools about them or their child by contacting Rish Lefterys, School Principal. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of the TSA Independent Schools duty of care to a student.

The school may, at its discretion, on the request of a student, grant that student access to information held by TSA Independent Schools about them, or allow a student to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their parent/carer. This would normally be done when the maturity of the student and/or the student's personal circumstances warrant it.

Enquiries and Complaints

If you would like further information about the way TSA Independent Schools manages the personal information it holds, or wish to make a complaint about TSA Independent Schools's breach of the Australian Privacy Principles please contact the School Principal or Lead Teacher on the relevant campus' phone number or by email: tsaindependentschools@salvationarmy.org.au

TSA Independent Schools will investigate any complaint and will notify you of the making of a decision in relation to your complaint as soon as is practicable after it has been made.

Appendix 1

Standard Collection Notice

1. The School collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents/carers before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the School. This may be in writing or in the course of conversations. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the School to provide schooling to students enrolled at the School, exercise its duty of care, engage in marketing/publicity and perform necessary associated administrative activities, which will enable students to take part in all activities of the School
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the School's legal obligations, particularly to enable the School to discharge its duty of care
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a school require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts, Public Health and Child Protection laws
4. Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988. We may ask you to provide medical reports about students from time to time
